TAX BUSINESS FORMS GUIDE

TAX BUSINESS FORMS GUIDE

FILING AS A SOLE PROPRIETOR?

Note that you're automatically treated as a sole proprietor if you don't elect another status. How to file: Report all business income on Schedule C of your personal tax return, using IRS Form 1040 and your social security number.

BEFORE YOU FILL OUT FORM 1040 YOU'LL NEED:

- The IRS's instructions for Schedule C
- Your SSN (Social Security Number)
- Your EIN (Employer Identification Number)—if you have one
- An income statement for the tax year
- Your balance sheet for the year
- Receipts or statements for any business purchases—including smaller items like food expenses and big-ticket items like equipment, cars, or buildings
- An inventory count and valuation (if you sell products)
- Mileage records

TAX BUSINESS FORMS GUIDE

FILING AS A C CORPORATION?

File IRS Form 8832 to confirm your tax status.

How to file: Report all business income on IRS Form 1120. That income will be taxed at the corporate rate. Keep in mind: Any dividends or salary you earn from will also be taxed as personal income on IRS Form 1040. For this reason, single member LLCs rarely elect to file as C corporations.

FILING AS AN S CORPORATION?

An S corporation is a pass-through entity, so you'll pay your personal tax rate on all business income, and you don't need to file self-employment tax like you normally would when filing as a sole prop. self-employment tax. If you are filing as an S corporation, file IRS Form 2553 to confirm your tax status, then report all business income on IRS Form 1120S.

BEFORE YOU FILL OUT FORM 1120S YOU'LL NEED:

- General information about your business, including your date of incorporation and the date you elected S-corp status
- Your business activity code and your Employer Identification Number (EIN)
- A profit and loss statement and a balance sheet for your business
- Information about any payments you made to independent contractors totaling at least $600 for the year (each of whom you should have sent a 1099 form)

FILING AS A SINGLE MEMBER LLC?

By default, your single member LLC is taxed as a sole proprietorship. In that case, the IRS treats your LLC as a disregarded entity. That means that, even though it's legally a separate entity from your person, you and your small business are one and the same for income tax purposes and file the same income tax return.

However, you can also elect to file using the rules for a C corporation or an S corporation. Then you would need to complete a separate corporate income tax return.

If your tax situation feels overwhelming or confusing, there's no need to try and solve all your problems alone or all at once.

We're here to help.

BOOKKEEPING CHECKLIST

BOOKKEEPING CHECKLIST

01 RECORD EVERY TRANSACTION.

Make sure you haven't forgotten to record any transactions on your books — even seemingly minor ones.

02 MAKE ADJUSTING JOURNAL ENTRIES

Some common adjustments you'll likely need to make are for depreciation and amortization.

03 SEPARATE PERSONAL AND BUSINESS EXPENSES

Not separating personal and can become a huge headache around tax time.

04 CHECK THAT TRANSACTIONS ARE CATEGORIZED CORRECTLY

Make sure that your transactions are in the right account or your taxable income might be incorrect.

05 RECONCILE YOUR BANK AND CREDIT CARD ACCOUNTS

Your bookkeeping isn't really done until you've checked it against what the bank says. Make sure your books match your bank records.

TAX SEASON RESOURCES & PLANNERS

CHECK YOUR LIST TWICE

There are a few items in particular that you'll want to pay extra attention to. Take your time to get these numbers exactly right and ensure you have the documentation to support them.

01 BUSINESS MILEAGE

If you drive for business reasons, you can deduct that mileage. Be sure you're tracking mileage that directly relates to your business activities, not mixed or personal ones.

02 HOME OFFICE DEDUCTION

If you have a space in your home entirely (not partially) devoted to business, you can deduct the costs associated with that space. Be careful in how you determine this space, it's a common IRS trigger and can draw a tax audit.

03 TRAVEL AND ENTERTAINMENT DEDUCTIONS

If you travel for business or entertain clients or employees as part of your business, those entertainment expenses can be deducted from your business taxes. Be sure to separate any business or personal costs if your travels include both work and pleasure.

04 CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTION DEDUCTION

If your business has made charitable contributions for the year, these can be deducted. Again, be careful to check your records on these, as charitable contributions can be an IRS audit trigger.

DO'S & DONT'S

DO'S

-  Organize your tax documents and store them in a secure location
-  Prepare your tax return truthfully and rigorously
-  File for an extension if you need one
-  Ask for help as soon as possible

DONT'S

-  Wait until the last minute to do your taxes
-  Avoid filing because you can't pay your taxes
-  Fill out a tax return with false information
-  Guess at important deductions and filing requirements

If your tax situation feels overwhelming or confusing, there's no need to try and solve all your problems alone or all at once

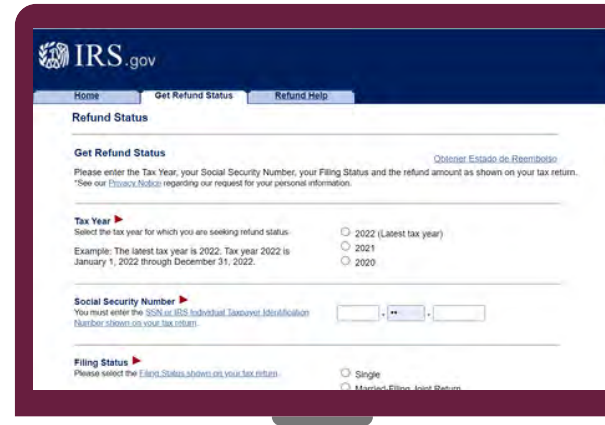

We're here to help.
